Holy, Holy, Holy

Sung by King's College Choir.

"Holy, Holy, Holy" is a Christian hymn written by Reginald Heber (1783-1826). Its lyrics speak specifically on the Trinity. It was written for use on Trinity Sunday. John Bacchus Dykes composed the tune Nicaea for this hymn in 1861. The name is a tribute to the First Council of Nicaea which formalized the doctrine of the Trinity in 325 a.d.

Prayer for Peace

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;

Where there is injury, pardon;

Where there is doubt, faith;

Where there is despair, hope;

Where there is darkness, light;

Where there is sadness, joy.

Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console;

To be understood, as to understand;

To be loved, as to love;

For it is in giving that we receive,

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,

It is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

~ St. Francis of Assisi

Following the assassination of The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in April, 1968, and before his own assassination in June of the same year, Robert F. Kennedy quoted his favorite poet Aeschylus: "In our sleep, pain which cannot forget falls drop by drop upon the heart, until, in our own despair, against our will, comes wisdom through the awful grace of God." He then added, "Let us dedicate ourselves to what the Greeks wrote so many years ago: to tame the savageness of man and make gentle the life of this world."

Ubi Caritas

Composed by Ola Gjeilo. Performed by Voces 8.

*Where charity and love prevail,
there God is ever found;
Brought here together by Christ's love,
by love are we thus bound.*

*With grateful joy and holy fear
His charity we learn;
Let us with heart and mind and soul
now love him in return.*

*Forgive we now each other's faults
as we our faults confess;
And let us love each other well
in Christian holiness.*

*Let strife among us be unknown,
let all contention cease;
Be His the glory that we seek,
be ours His holy peace.*

*Let us recall that in our midst
dwells God's begotten Son;
As members of His body joined,
we are in Him made one.*

No race or creed can love exclude,
if honored be God's name;
Our family embraces all whose Father is the same.

The Irish Blessing for Front Line Workers

The Irish Blessing (Beannacht uile-Éireann) is a project inspired by the many international recordings of "The Blessing" (by Cody Carnes, Kari Jobe and Elevation Worship) which have been made during this time of pandemic. We wanted to honour that inspiration, whilst at the same time, honouring the unique history and culture of our island. So we chose a song that would resonate across the island, with every denomination and cultural grouping, one that could be used as a platform to sing a Blessing over our land, all our key-workers and those they are caring for. "Be Thou My Vision" is just such a hymn written over 1000 years ago. It reminds us of the One to whom we should look in this time of pandemic, whose presence is our light, the source of our wisdom, in whom we find our treasure and where we find victory. Individuals from 300 Christian churches and organisations located in every county on the island submitted self-recordings of vocals and instruments which have been compiled by our creative team to produce this music video - we hope you receive a blessing as you watch it.

A very strong proof of this destruction of death and its conquest by the cross is supplied by a present fact, namely this. All the disciples of Christ despise death; they take the offensive against it and, instead of fearing it, by the sign of the cross and by faith in Christ trample on it as on something dead (St. Athanasius, fourth century).

“Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy. O Christ, hear us. In mercy hear us. God, the Father in heaven, have mercy on us. God, the Son, redeemer of the world, have mercy on us. God, the Holy Spirit, have mercy on us. Holy Trinity, one God, have mercy on us. Be gracious to us. Spare us, good Lord...” (from the opening verses of The Litany, Lutheran Book of Worship, pages 168ff).

Please consider praying (and singing) The Litany in your homes during the evening hours.
